

Looking forward, Looking back...

In 2003, we'll definitely
LOOK FORWARD
as we invite our alumni to bring back their kids and grandkids to learn about what life at Augusta was like!

Every alumnus of AMA is invited back to Fort Defiance for Reunion 2003! Faculty and friends of AMA too! The Class of 1953 will have a 50th Anniversary and the Class of '43 will have a 60th! Our last class, the fellows from '83, will have been gone from Augusta for 20 years, if you can believe that. '63, '68, '73, and '78 also will have significant anniversaries to celebrate!

Our Museum will have many new things you haven't seen before as well as some permanent exhibits. We'll play golf and tennis, shoot clays, enjoy parties, meals and most of all, each other!

This year, we have asked that alumni bring to the reunion their children and grandchildren and great-grandkids so they can see at first hand what AMA was and is all about! In this way, they can help to carry on the proud Augusta Military Academy legacy.

There will be entertainment and games for the youngsters. They will have an opportunity to don an AMA uniform and hold an AMA rifle that Dad or Granddad carried. We promise that the younger offspring will not be bored!

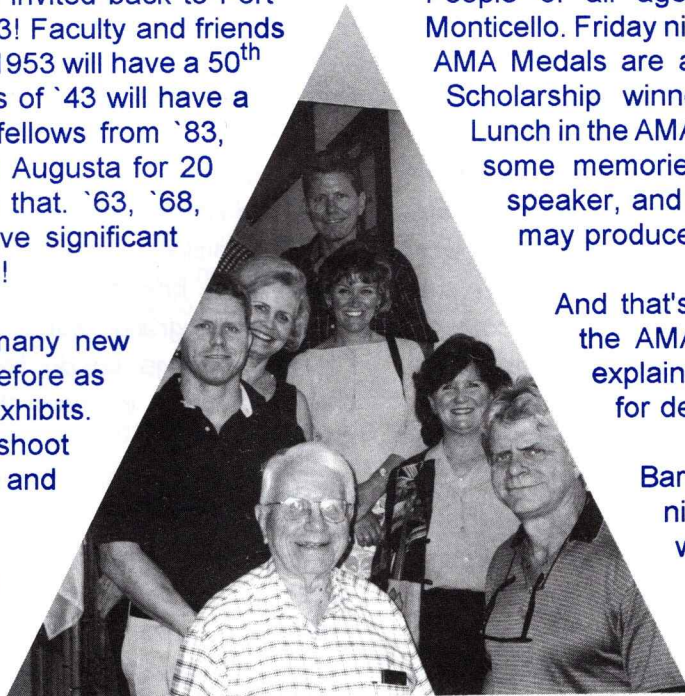

People of all ages can enjoy Friday's trip to Monticello. Friday night, we honor our own when the AMA Medals are awarded and the AMA Legacy Scholarship winners are introduced. Saturday Lunch in the AMA Gymnasium should bring back some memories with the help of our guest speaker, and the Founders Day ceremonies may produce a tear or two.

And that's OK because that was part of the AMA experience too! How do we explain to anyone the feelings we have for dear old AMA?

Barbecue and dancing on Saturday night are perfect ways to end the weekend. The fantastic bargains available at the Silent Auction are not to be overlooked.

So, register now! Get your hotel reservations made as soon as possible. Plan to see guys you saw last year, or maybe haven't seen for half a century.

And let your children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and beyond be with you as you share those precious memories which are ours, and ours alone! The registration form is inside together with a list of area hotels and the schedule of events. Plan now to be in Fort Defiance on the first weekend in May for a time you and yours will never, ever forget.

TIME FOR REUNION 2003!

I hope you had Happy Holidays! My very best to you and your family as we begin the New Year. We have much to be thankful for. Our Association is vibrant, the Foundation is established, and we are on our way to another fantastic reunion.

We are not, however, free from the effects of 9/11 and the resulting struggling economy. Contributions have been considerably lower than last year. Yet, our expenses remain. We have cut back where we can, but continue to feel the effects of declining donations. Our most precious communications tool is The Bayonet. To date, The Bayonet has not felt the impact of our cost-cutting since it reaches so many and is our voice to alumni and friends.

However, unless the General Fund grows steadily in the next few months, The Bayonet will have to feel the effects of our economic illness too. So, please, if you have read this far, take time now to send in a donation. The equivalent of $5 a week (the cost of lunch at Subway) can make a big difference.

As we cross the threshold of 2003 and manage through the winter, spring will come quickly, and the Shenandoah Valley will welcome AMA alumni and their families once again. We will continue to look back and heap honor on our World War II vets who saved Western civilization. And we'll also look forward to our future by asking that you bring your sons and daughters, grandsons and granddaughters to the reunion to share the AMA experience with them.

The time will come when the last Augusta alumnus is gone and the AMA Foundation will be left in the hands of those who never spent a night in barracks or ate a meal in the mess hall or marched in a Sunday parade. It can, however, be managed by the offspring of those who did attend AMA, and I can't think of anyone else who I would want in that position when that time comes.

Please bring your children and grandchildren and great-grandchildren of whatever age. There will be things to do for everyone, and we hope there will ignite in them the fire to keep the AMA dream alive!

Honor Classes from '43, '53, '63, '68, '73, '78 and '82 will be celebrating! You can count on a long-lost friend to show up, and you'll want to be there too.

The Reunion Committee has great plans for the Friday tour and we plan to have a very special guest speaker during the Saturday luncheon. Sports like lacrosse, soccer, fencing, basketball, and football will be played on the Parade Ground and in the AMA Gymnasium. You can test your skill to see if you can outshoot, outfence, or outkick your kids and grandkids!

The fun begins on the first day of May, 2003. Make plans to attend now. Hotel rooms are going fast!

Garry Granger, '71

President, AMA Alumni Association, Inc.

Three $2,000 scholarships will be awarded at reunion

Three AMA Legacy Scholarships, each worth $2,000, will be awarded during Reunion 2003 to children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of AMA alumni.

AMA Scholarship Committee Chairman Bruce Orenstein, '69, says that applications for the scholarship awards are now available at the AMA Alumni House/Museum. To receive an application, you can phone 540/248-3007, send an e-mail to: AMAAlumniHouse@aol.com, or write a letter to: AMA Alumni House at: PO Box 101, Fort Defiance, VA 24437.

Orenstein says that completed applications must be returned by 24 March 2003 in order that the judging can be completed and the scholarship winners can be advised in advance of the reunion.

AMA Legacy Scholarships are awarded annually to direct descendants (children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, et al) of Augusta alumni. Applicants must be age 25 or less and either enrolled in or have been accepted at an educational institution past the high school level. The scholarships are paid directly to the institutions.

Students who have received AMA Legacy Scholarships in the past are eligible to apply again. The judging is done by an independent educator who has no relationship to the AMA Alumni Association or to any of its officers or directors.

Descendants can be natural, adopted or step children, grandchildren, etc.

The three stipends awarded in 2002 went to Peter Baxter, stepson of Mickey Toms, '67, Megan Spigle, daughter of Stephen Spigle, '74, and Joshua Mallett, son of Robert Mallett, '73.

Request your application today! Get it in by 24 March!

Time to nominate Alumni Medals recipients for 2003

Nominations for the 2003 Augusta Military Academy Alumni Medals are now being solicited. This will be the 5th year that the Medals have been awarded. Winners will be announced at the Friday night Awards Banquet during Reunion 2003.

The medals may be presented to anyone who has been a special friend to AMA and to the AMA Alumni Association. Alumni, faculty members and friends of AMA each can receive this special honor.

Individuals nominated may have done one very special thing for AMA, or it may be for continuing support. Those who have received medals in the past may be nominated again, but members of the AMA Medals Committee may not be considered during the year in which they are on the committee.

Alumni Association President Garry Granger, '71, has asked Bob Bradford, '50, to chair the committee again. Members of the selection committee, in addition to Granger and Bradford, are Frank Williamson, '60, Rod Willey, '51, Gary Nicholson, '70, and John Hash, '75.

Medal winners in 2002 were Dave Conrad, '59, Duke Fancher, '58, Bob Harris, '54, Sergeant Joe Josephson, Goodloe Saunders, '57, Steve Trent, '70, Jerry Wildman, '57, and Rod Willey, '51.

Nominations should be submitted to: AMA MEDAL, PO Box 101, Fort Defiance, VA 24437, by FAX to 540/ 248-4533, or by e-mail to: AMAAlumniHouse@aol.com. The deadline to receive nominations is 5 April 2003.

Past year winners include Ed Click, '50, the late Bill Gray, '37, V.P. Leavel, '39, Steve Pearson, '72, Frank Williamson, '60, Tommy Simmons, '52, Gary Nicholson, '70; the late Mickey Gordon, '39, Bob Bradford, '50, Chief Chester Cole, B.J. d'Orsay, '70, Gordon Metz, '68, Sergeant Don Studer, and Ben Zinkhan, '60.

Annual sporting clay shoot set for Saturday of Reunion 2003

Once again, shooters will gather at the Flying Rabbit outside of Harrisonburg to try their hand at knocking clays out of the sky during the annual AMA Alumni Reunion in May.

Blaine Clarke, '72, says from his home in Germantown, MD, that the shoot is scheduled for 3 PM on Saturday 3 May, rain or shine. Last year, it rained, but the shoot went on as scheduled as a brave band of marksmen tested their shooting skills.

"You don't have to be an expert,"

Clarke says. "We're out there just to have fun. You don't even have to bring your own shotgun. If you will let me know in advance, you can borrow a weapon."

Clarke also said that the shoot will start late enough for those who want to attend Founders Day services in the Stone Church Cemetery, and early enough to complete the shoot before darkness falls.

Last year, Clarke won the shoot by breaking 44 of 50 targets, outpointing second place finisher Rick Ellett, also from the Class of '72.

If you would like to participate in the 2003 Sporting Clay Shoot, get in touch with Blaine Clarke. Alumni, AMA friends, men and women.

You can send an e-mail to Blaine at: Blaine.Clarke@CO.MO.MD.US

Or call him at work, 240/777-3582. Blaine says there will be time for some practice shots before the competition begins.

A fantastic trip back in time with stops at today's Virginia wineries... Monticello... Michie Tavern... the Rotunda and the Lawn at the University of Virginia... wine tasting at the Jefferson Vineyards and the First Colony Winery... all in the company of AMA friends!

The Mountaintop at Monticello embodies all that was Thomas Jefferson. Principal philosopher of the American Revolution. Author of the Declaration of Independence.
Founder of the University of Virginia. Governor of Virginia. President of the United States. Architect.
Astronomer. Farmer. Musician. Surveyor. Jurist. All these parts of the Great Man can still be discerned in a visit to his Monticello. This is not just an old house.
This is Thomas Jefferson's house, unique in all the world in its time and now.

Monticello, the West Front, from an 1825 painting

Luncheon in the famous Michie Tavern. Offering a hearty midday fare presented by servers in period attire in the rustic tavern setting. Harken back to the late 18th Century as you taste exquisite recipes dating from the 1700's. Michie Tavern, so rich in history, with a dining experience equally rich in Southern culture and hospitality. All part of the AMA Friday Trip at Reunion 2003.

Michie Tavern, 1784-2002, witness to history

After lunch, visit The Lawn and The Rotunda at the University of Virginia. The Rotunda was designed by Jefferson to be the heart of what he called the "academic village." You will marvel at Mister Jefferson's foresight and his architectural genius. See the student buildings along The Lawn.

Visit Jefferson Vineyards
for a wine tasting before lunch, and First Colony Winery after your visit to the University. All part of the Friday tour!

Silent Auction offers treasures

The Silent Auction at Reunion 2003 will be offering things that were once treasures, and are again, plus items and collectibles made by alumni, alumni wives and friends of AMA.

Dave Conrad, '59, is again Chairman of the auction. "We are expecting some unique items again this year," he says, "and we are looking for more items which can be auctioned off during the reunion weekend." Last year's auction netted $6,000, a record.

In previous years, the auction has seen handmade angels, quilts, AMA memorabilia, and even a cherry desk built and donated by an alumnus. There have been pictures, antiques, a stay at a bed and breakfast, and other valuable items.

Two items brought big responses last year: roundtrip coach and first class tickets on American Airlines, donated by AA Exec Tom DeValle, '73.

Many valuable framed items were given by Ed Chauncey, '49, last year and in the previous several years, for which we are grateful.

Be thinking about what you have in your attic, garage or closet that would be valuable to someone else. It was once valuable to you and it can be valuable to someone else!

Please bring your contributions to the Silent Auction to the reunion registration area. Thanks very much!

Bring your children, grandkids and great-grandchildren to the 2003 AMA Reunion!

A unique opportunity to pass along AMA's legacy to the generations who follow us.

There will be plenty to do for people of all ages!
